Tour Details

Visiting an onsen is the Japanese version of the good life. At Japanese onsens, you will enjoy excellent food and experience the famous Japanese hospitality. And don't forget the Japanese baths. The Japanese have raised bathing to a whole new level, and they are an important experience that should be included in every visit to Japan. And in between all of this, we will be visiting some of Japan's most remote sightseeing destinations. If you like Japanese food and enjoy the Japanese baths, this tour should not be missed.

Follow in the footsteps of pilgrims from the Kyoto Imperial Court 1,000 years ago as you visit the Kumano Sanzan, the ultimate destinations of the Kumano Kodo Pilgrimage. Soak in the waters of Kii-Katsuura Onsen with its sea-side cave bath.

Visit the city of Takayama in the middle of the Japan Alps. With its traditional inns, shops, and sake breweries, Takayama has managed to retain its traditional charm. Stroll through Takayama's farmer's market, sampling the numerous options from vegetable stands and stalls selling herbs, pickles, and souvenirs.

Relax and enjoy the natural beauty of Kamikochi, with its numerous gentle trails.

Visit unique Matsumoto with its many beautiful Edo-period (17th-to-19th-century) Kura (warehouses) with their striking black-and-white contrasting latticework. And the famous Matsumoto Castle, one of only 12 original castles left remaining in Japan. This beautiful castle is also known as Crow Castle because of its stark black walls.

Experience the world-famous "snow monkeys" of Japan. The Red-Faced "snow monkeys" are only found in Japan, and during the entire year, the monkeys enjoy using the thermally-heated mineral water baths.

And last, but not least, enjoy the waters of Kusatsu Onsen, one of Japan's most famous onsen. It is blessed with large volumes of high-quality hot spring water said to cure every illness but lovesickness. Kusatsu has the largest natural flow of hot spring water in all of Japan, much of which surface at the Yubatake in the town center. The sulfurous, highly acidic waters have been considered among Japan's best for centuries, and the resort town has constantly occupied a top spot in onsen rankings. It is difficult to beat Kusatsu in terms of the quality and quantity of its waters.

PLEASE NOTE: Tattoos in Japan are stigmatized, and therefore tattoos are not widely accepted at onsen baths in Japan. If you have tattoos, you may not be allowed to use the baths.

Itinerary

Day 1 Arrive in Tokyo, Travel by limousine bus to the hotel

After clearing customs and immigration, you will be met at Tokyo's Narita Airport or Haneda Airport by a Samurai Tours meeting staff member. They will help you board the bus to the hotel. After checking in, the evening is free. No meals are included.

Day 2 Travel to Shirahama Onsen

After breakfast, we will begin with a welcome/orientation meeting. We will then travel Shirahama Onsen, a well-developed onsen resort 100 kilometers south of Osaka. Its popularity as an entertainment destination and its proximity to Osaka caused Shirahama to become one of Japan's three biggest onsen resorts, along with Beppu on Kyushu and Atami on the Izu Peninsula. The main attraction is the 500-meter long white sand beach. Before leaving Tokyo, you will need to send your main luggage to Kawayu Onsen. You will need to take whatever you will need for two days/one night with you. Breakfast and dinner at the accommodations are included.

Travel: 4 Hours; Walking: Light

Day 3 Kumano Kodo Pilgrimage - Takijiri-oji, Chikatsuyu-oji, Tsugizakura-oji; Travel to Kawayu Onsen

After checking out of our accommodation, we will begin our adventure along the Kumano Kodo Pilgrimage Route, a 1,000-year-old pilgrimage route frequented by Kyoto Imperial Court members during the Heian Period. We will stop at Takijiri-oji, Chikatsuyu-oji, and Tsugizakura-oji, three main stops along the pilgrimage. After checking in, you will receive your luggage. And then you are free to enjoy the baths next to the river. Breakfast and dinner at the accommodations included.

Travel: 2 Hours; Walking: Medium

Day 4 Kumano Kodo Pilgrimage - Walk from Hosshinmon-oji to Hongu Taisha, Kumano Kodo Pilgrimage Center, Oyunohara

After breakfast we will travel to Hosshinmon-oji. The Hosshinmon-oji was one of the five most important Oji along the Kumano Kodo because it was considered the entry into the sacred area around the Hongu Shrine (Oji were important places of worship along the Kumano Kodo). We will walk the relatively easy 7 km (5 miles) to the Hongu Taisha Shrine. The first half of the walk is through small villages, but the second half of the walk is through a secluded, forested area. At the Hongu Taisha, our first shrine of the Kumano Sanzan, we will tour the shrine and pay our respects to the Kumano deities. Before continuing, we will stop at the Kumano Hongu Heritage Center where we can rest and learn more about the fascinating history of the Kumano Kodo. Later, we will continue our pilgrimage at the nearby Oyunohara. This was the original location of Hongu Taisha until 1889 when the shrine was destroyed by a flood and moved to its present location on higher ground. All of the pilgrimage trails of the Kumano Kodo lead to the Oyunohara. Breakfast and dinner at the accommodations included.

Travel: 1 1/2 Hours; Walking: Heavy

Day 5 Travel to Shingu; Shingu - Hayatama Taisha and Kamikura Shrine; Travel to Kii-Katsuura Onsen

We will travel by bus to the Shingu station. From the station in Shingu, we will another bus to the Hayatama Shrine. While the shrine's current buildings are relatively new, the shrine has been located at its current location since at least the 12th century. Excavations in the area have unearthed religious artifacts from the 3rd century, indicating the area has been a site of worship even longer. The 800-year old tree located on the grounds highlights the area's tradition of nature worship. We will also visit the nearby Gotobiki-iwa, a gigantic rock located halfway up the slope of Gongen Mountain. Kamikura Jinja, a small shrine located at the base of this monolith is a truly unique experience. It is said that the gods descended to earth by stepping on this large stone. From there we will travel to the city of Kii-Katsuura where we will be staying overnight with unique baths in seaside caves. Before leaving Kawayu Onsen, you will need to send your main luggage to Gero Onsen. You will need to take whatever you will need for three days/two nights with you. Breakfast and dinner buffets at the accommodations are included.

Travel: 2 Hours Walking: Medium

Day 6 Walk along the Daimonzaka to Nachi Taisha; Tour Nachi Taisha and Waterfall

Today we will visit Nachi Taisha, the third of the Kumano Sanzan. We will take a bus to the base of the Diamonzaka, a 2 km (1 mile) cobblestoned staircase. The Daimonzaka winds its way through huge cedar trees that are as old as 800 years from the valley bottom to the Nachi Taisha Shrine. The Nachi Taisha Shrine is perhaps the most dramatic shrine in Japan. It is located high on a hillside with impressive views of the 133 meter (about 435 feet) tall Nachi-no-Otaki waterfall, Japan's tallest waterfall. This waterfall was the original religious focus of the area and was venerated by the earliest Japanese people. Even today it is hard not to be impressed by the power and the beauty of the falls. We will return to our ryokan at the Kii-Katsuura Onsen where you can once again rest in the seaside baths. Breakfast and dinner buffets at the accommodation are included.

Travel: 1 1/2 Hours; Walking: Medium

As you approach Kamikochi, the valley opens onto a row of towering mountains, with the icy Azusa River flowing through the middle of the valley. The day is free to relax and enjoy the natural beauty of Kamikochi. There are numerous gentle trails in the valley, and many trails leading to the surrounding mountains for the more adventurous.
